FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is Engaged Encounter?

The weekend you spend with Engaged Encounter is only part of your six months premarital preparation. On the Engaged Encounter weekend, you will be able to concentrate on each other, free of the tensions, pressures and interruptions of the world. It is specifically designed to provide you the opportunity to dialogue honestly and intensely with each other about your prospective life together...your strengths and weaknesses; your desires, ambitions and goals; your attitudes about money, sex, children, family and faith. You will not be tested by us as to your compatibility; we make no reports back to your pastor except to provide a certificate of completion of the weekend.

Who is it for?

Engaged Encounter is for a couple planning marriage that desires a richer, fuller life together. Although the encounter weekend is Catholic in origin and orientation, it is open to couples of any faith. Nearly 50% of the couples attending a weekend have mixed religious backgrounds. Our weekend is applicable to Christian, Jewish and other religions. You are encouraged to attend the weekend three to six months prior to your wedding date.

What happens on a weekend?

The weekend is conducted by two married couples and a member of the Catholic clergy. Topics include learning about yourself as an individual and as a new married couple. We help you discover the role of God, religion and family traditions in your marriage. You will learn how to communicate about family planning, sexual intimacy, and differing expectations (including how to argue).

As a couple you will then privately discuss your feelings and reactions to the presentations about marriage. We will show you an easy technique to accomplish this dialogue.

No one will be asked to share their feelings with the group. A group activity is provided to explore your questions about various issues in new marriages. Time is available to talk individually with the clergy and married couples. We provide an instructional Mass or Communion service. We eat together in a dining room that may be used by other groups.

When and Where?

The schedule and location of our weekends are shown on the registration form. The weekend begins Friday at 7:30 p.m. and ends around 12:00 noon on Sunday. Late arrival, early departure and intermittent leave are not permitted. The weekend is designed to build on itself and requires uninterrupted attendance.

Accommodations are provided for two females or two males per room with separate beds. If you have a physical handicap, let the registrar know. For an extra fee, you may have a single, private bedroom, if available.

What is the cost?

Our fee is shown on the registration form. This includes your accommodations, meals and all materials. Refunds may be made if your cancellation is received at least two weeks before the scheduled weekend. Due to the large number of weddings in the Charlotte Diocese, the weekends are normally filled several weeks prior to the scheduled date. Make your plans accordingly.
